Nothing our salesmen can say about the Willys-Knight motor car can be as convincing as the statements of Willys-Knight owners. The man who had driven a Willys-Knight car thousands of miles becomes so enthusiastic over the sleeve-valve motor that he is rarely ever content until he prevails upon his friends to profit by his experience. The Willys-Knight sleeve-valve motor is so ungrudging and unflagging in its performance that it has come to be known as the motor that always runs. The staunch allegiance of Willys-Knight owners has given rise to the expression-"Once a Willys-Knight owner always a Willys-Knight owner."

Music and Thinking.

About 1000 A. D. a monk in an Italian monastery had been thinking about the long, laborious task of train ing singers for the church service, Ten years were required for a singer to memorize words and music of the various chants and bytthe used! There was no system for learning a new tune independent of the words.

And wille he was thinking he heard his choirboys practicing one of their lessons, a hymn that rose in pitch with the first syllable of each successive line, just as the scale series was formed.

Thought flashed!

And the result of his thinking wa. the use of the syllables at (changed to do later), re, mi, fa, sol, la, si to facilitate scale learning. The immediate result was that Guido's choirboys learned all their tunes-and could take new ones-in six month, as agains. ten years in the old way.

And the indirect result is that boyand girls in the schools of this country learn the scales by a process similar to that thought out by a monk in Italy nearly 1,000 years ago.

Change of Fashion.

Indeed, so completely have fashions and materials changed in a century that the articles included in the following advertisement of goods to be sold on Fishhourne's wharf, "back of Mrs. Fishbourne's dwelling," have scarcely any meaning for us. Among the numerous articles to be disposed of were: "Tandems, Isinghams, nuas ong and gulixall shirtings, huckabacks, quilted hum-hums, turkettes, grassetts single allopeens, children's jumps and bodice, whalehone and iron busks, men's Newmarket caps, allibanies dickmansoy, cushloes, chuchloes, cut tances, crimson dannador, chained soosces, lemonees, byrampauts, moree, maffermany, saxlingham, prunelloe barragons," etc.

Humbums was a sort of towel made of coarse Indian cotton cloth; cuitanee a kind of piece goods of silk and cotton, also imported from India: barragon is the barracan of today, . fabric made of camel's hair, used widely in the Levant for robes and mantles; but for the most part the articles named in the advertisement have long become obsolete.

THE $13,000,000 SALVATION ARMY POSTER

"A man may be down, but he's never out," the Salvation Army slogan, furn shed the theme for the official Home Service Fund Campaign poster designed by Frederick Duncan, the noted artist. From this he has evolved a striking artistic creation, typifying the hand of the Salvation Army reaching out to rescue those who are enshrouded in the clouds of poverty and vice. A Salvation Army lass is the principal figure, and the scarlet lining of her cloak, thrown back as she enfolds those who are calling out to her in distress, furnishes the poster with its one spot of brilliant color. The background is of blacks, grays and greens, indicative of the storm clouds of misery and want.

EVANGELINE BOOTH TELLS HOME SERVICE FUND'S NEEDS.

Evangeline Booth, commander of the Salvation Army in the United States, explaining the purpose of the campaign for $13,000,000 which will be conducted from May 19 to May 26 for the Salvation Army Home Service Fund, said:

"The Salvarion Army has been tolling on the upward trend for more than half a century, doing just what it did in France, all in the same spirit and manner, but you did not happen to bear of it, perhaps.

"The war depleted our forces and not only a rehabilitation now, but we must rise to the new high-tide mark and equip ourselves to maintain here in a the United States the contracts we . were privilized to make on both sides of the sea because of the war."

"OUT OF LOVE" CLUB UNIQUE ORGANIZATION

Members Are Girls Rescued by Salvation Army.

The "Out of Love" Club is one of the important club organizations maintained by the Salvation Army in this country. In every large city where there is a Salvation Army corps girls who have been helped back into the normal pace of a workaday world are proud of the membership in this club. Disappointed, loveless girls who do not forget kindnesses shown them in their hour of greatest need give out of love to help other girls receive the same friendliness. In a simple, quiet way, this unique idea has been maintained for over 20 years.

In every large city in the country there are girls who have needed the ministrations of the Salvation Army. After they have been helped and sent on their way again they become life members of this club if they so desire. Only girls are admitted who have given a good account of themselves for at least one month in the positions found for them by the Salvation Army after their release from a hospital or home. These girls pledge themselves to keep alive the spirit of friendliness and home which the Salvation Army has opread among them. The girls are word gaudy or tawdry clothing

Think This Over

The investment of Funds and care of these investments are always difficult problems for the average individual.

Why not create a trust which can provide for the payment of income to you during life and designate the disposition of property after your death. Or which may be so drawn that in case of need through illness or unexpected misfortune the principal may be drawn on for that purpose.

In this way the aged are relieved of the care and investment of funds, which is always a difficult matter for persons who are not physically strong.

The laws of Pennsylvania guard well funds placed in the hands of Trust Companies of the state.

THE CITIZEN'S TRUST COMPANY OF GETTYSBURG stands ready to assume these cares and responsibilities for you.

Solidified alcohol has proved one of the most convenient forms of fuel, and is largely made use of at the present time for many purposes. There are many forms of cockers making use of this fuel, and the latest device of this character is a sterilizing apparatus to be made use of by docfors and nurses. The sterilizer consists of the containers, one to accommodate the instruments to be treated and the other for the gauze. bandages and similar material. A small quantity of water in the lower chamber is beated by the flame from the alcohol and the steam therefrom passes around the instruments, ther oughly cleansing them and then passing to the upper chamber, where it has the same effect on the contents of that compartment. The same principle is made use of in the construction of a food kettle for the use of aeronants. The food is nucked in the interior of the kettle and a small alcohol burner stowed away in the bottom is ignited and the heat from it will keep the food hot for several hours.

Government Loans and Prosperity or Taxes and Tight Money

THE United States has ten billion dollars of unpaid war bills that must be paid if the nation is to maintain its credit standing before the world.

And it must get the money with which to pay them from us-in either loans or taxes.

There's only one choice—to oversubscribe the Victory Liberty Loan now, or to pay even higher taxes later on.

And anybody would rather subscribe to a Victory Loan than pay a tax.

But granting that you would rather pay taxes, the matter doesn't end there.

The consequences of such a choice would affect the prosperity of this country—your individual prosperity for years to come.

The Government has already had to borrow from the banks a large part of the money with which it is meeting current bills

If we don't raise the money now to pay off those borrowings by oversubscribing the Victory Liberty Loan, the banks in turn cannot lend to American merchants, manufacturers and exporters the money needed for the expansion of American business and the payment of good

Each bank has only so much money to lend. It can't lend it to business men and to the Government at the same time.

The business men MUST have bank loans in order to start industry humming, pay good wages, and bring about the period of prosperity we are all looking forward to.

THE VICTORY LOAN MEANS BUSINESS, new enterprises started, factories enlarged, business expansion, export trade secured, plenty of employment and good wages.

TAXES MEAN TIGHT MONEY, business curtailed, credits cut down, building plans held up, export opportunities lost, factories shut down, and an ever-increasing army of unemployed.

There's no question of patriotism or sentiment involved in that-just hard-headed business sense

It is true, we want to "finish up the job." We want to see that every last one of the boys who fought or prepared to fight for us is brought home, the wounded cared for, good jobs found for all. We want to go over the top in the Victory Liberty Loan, as we have each time the Government has called on us.

We want to do all these things BECAUSE WE ARE AMERICANS

It just happens, in the matter of the Victory Loan vs. Taxes, that it is also to our best interest to do so.

RIDICULOUS FAD OF FASHION

Description of Head-Dress Worn by Women Some Centurics Ago Appears Almost Incredible.

Fashion plays constant pranks with a woman's hair. Addison says in the Spectator of 1718: "There is not so variable a thing in nature as a lady's head-dress; within my memory I have known it to rise and fall above 30 degrees." In the reign of Henry VI, ladies wore horns, having en each side ears so large that when they would pass through the door of a room it was necessary to turn sideways and stoop. It was judged necessary to enlarge the doors of the Chateau de Vincennes. The correct angle for the hair was 45 from perpendicular, which entailed great strain upon the hair growing from the forehead. Little thought of what we call cleanliness or even decency was present at the hairdressing of that day. Not only was the hair left untouched for a most revoltingly long time, but materials were used in the dressing of the hair and making the rolls (as Anna Green Winslow related), which were most incredible. The Boston Guzette of May, 1771, tells of a young woman driving in Roston streets who was thrown from her carriage and her high tower partly torn off. It proved to be stuffed with yarn, tow, wool, curled hair, and even hay.

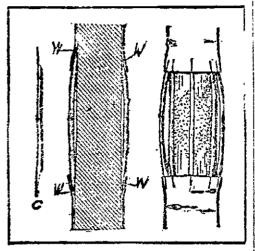

Not for nothing have we been grouped in families, neighborhoods, nations; and he who will not recoghas seen the insects, a number of through the lead as it would through nize the divinely appointed nearness which are held in captivity in lead the bark. BRIDGE GRAFT SAVES TREES

Many Injuries Made by Mice and Rao bits May Be Repaired-"Sun Scald" Can Be Remedied.

Now that winter is gone it is possible to go through a young orchard and find just how much damage has been done by mice, rabbits by gir tling or by barking and skinning caused by animals running in the occhards There are many of these injuries that may be repaired by the proper use of the bridge graft, even though the in Juries may amount to a complete gir-

Such injuries as those caused by pear blight may be handled successfully by the use of this same method

"C," Scion; "W," Insertion Under Bark, and Five Scions in Place for

Of course, this remedy must be applied in time if good. Those common injuries in western orchards, "sun scald," may also be remedied by this same

Where an attempt is to be made to save a tree, or trees, the work should be done before growth starts. After the growth has begun it is possible to do the work if you can get dormant scions for use in making the bridges of new tissue over the injured area.

The first step is to cut away all the injured tree material and make the wound as clean as possible. It is a great deal like surgery on animal tissue in this respect. If you are clean and careful you can look for good resuits even though you may not be s brilliant operator or a quick one.

The wound that is made should be sterilized by using some antiseptic like a copper sulphate or a bichlor ide of mercury solution. Make the edges of the wound as even as you can, cutting back far enough into the healthy tree tissue to be sure that you have a sound "second bark" or cambium to which to make the graft.

For the grafts take good sound branches or twigs from wood that -Mrs. Tracey Tuthill and son have grew last season. Water sprouts that returned from Staunton. Va., to their are only a year old will serve very zine. When its working tusk becomes well. Have your scions lying handy measure the distance across the wound and cut the graft just a little longer than the space across which it is to reach. This is to have it long enough to lead or arch slightly between the

The engs of the graft are beveled slightly on the inner sides, so they will lie flat to the surface. Make these heveling cuts long and sloping, so these ends are flat and sharp and will wedge under the back without raising

It is easier to place the ends of the scions if the bark at the margin where they are to be inserted is split just a little. The inner bark of the seions should be so exposed that it will come in direct touch with the inner bark of the tree. If the inner layers of bark of both the ends and of the tree do not come together, there will be no growth or union and the graft will fail.

The ends of the scien can be bound tightly to the tree, but a simpler plan is to drive a small nail through the ends of the scien and hold them to the tree trunk. This will serve to keep them in their exact place and at the same time insure a better union between the graft and the old bark.

After the nails have been driven use the grafting wax. If you have no wax but have waxed cloth this will do about as well. The area occupied by the wound and by the grafts should he covered thoroughly in order to keep them from drying out. Where it is desired the whole wound may be covered with a layer of melted wax. This may be made to cover the scions, too, with good results.

SPRAY TREES WHEN DORMANT

Work is Directed Largely Against Scale Insects-Prime Essential is Thoroughness,

The spraying of trees during winter and spring, or when they are in a derment condition, is directed largely against scale insects, especially the San Jose scale. There are two principal advantages of spraying at this time: The absence of foliage permits more thorough applications, and the sprays may be used much stronger than during the growing season. Coatact sprays, such as lime-sulphur so-Intion, fish-oil, and other soap washes. kerosene and crude-petroleum emulsions, are employed. The prime essential is theroughness in making apspray are killed.

JUDGE WAS ON RIGHT TRACK

New Englander a Pioneer in Scheme of Conserving Water for Use in Summer Months,

Present-day interest in the development of water power has recalled a modest, old-fashioned episode in the history of New England when, some time in the forties. Judge Nathan Crosby drove round Lake Winnepesaukee in his carriage and made rough calculations of the effect upon local agricultural land if the lake level were raised a few feet. Out of that carriage ride grew a plan by which Lakes Winnepesaukee, Squam, Newfound and others have since been used as storage basins, conserving water for the summer months, and thus becoming modest ploneers of the more impressive plants for water utilization that will doubtless be a feature of the United States in the not distant future. Judge Crosby, however, may have had no more idea of the transmission of water power in the form of electricity than his buggy had of becoming an automobile.—Christian Science Monitor.

Not many people are aware that elephants are "right-handed" and "lefthanded" in using their tusks, and that an examination of the tusks of any particular elephant will reveal the chass to which the elephant belongs. An elephant uses only one tusk most of the time it is digging for salt earth, uprooting trees or tearing up roots, says a contributor to an English magabudly broken it turns to the other, just as a man who has injured his right h; ad takes to his left. The tusk must be very severely damaged before it will give up using it in preference to the

The working tusk becomes worn and smooth toward the end-so much worn, in fact, that it is often appreciably shorter than the other, and frequently the tip has been broken off. After that has happened the jagged edge becomes gradually worn smooth, and in the course of years pointed again, but the working tusk is always blunter than the other.

Presidential Succession.

Members of the cabinet are in line to the succession, if they can comply with the Constitutional requirements, which provide that: "No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president." What is called the presidential act, passed in 1896, provides for the succession to the presidency by cabinet officers in the following order: Secretary of state, secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, secretary of the navy, secretary of the interior, secretary of agriculture, secretary of commerce, secretary of labor. A person not born in this country may be a member of the president's cabinet, but he is not eligible to the presidency, being barred by the Constitutional provision quoted nhove.

Candle Auction.

The candle has been used for many purposes. In the seventeenth century a candle auction was the regular method of selling wares at the mart of the East India company-a custom which is still in vogue in various parts of the country, notably at Tatworth, near Chard, in Somerset, where the letting of land is annually conducted by this novel method. The thirty or forty people having rights in the land assemble and bid, and it is "knocked down" to the last bidder as the inch of candle flickers out. In three successive years the candle burned for 3514, 27 and 3914 matutes.-London Times.

Not Desirable.

"I had to ask I lubdub not to eat here any more."

"What's wrong?" "Every time I got a pretty waitress plications, so as to cover every part he'd try to convince her that she was of the tree, because in general only cut out for a movie career, so I told those insects actually hit with the him to take his bash business some where else."-Louisville Courier-Joue
